SUNDAY KEEPING

EVANGELIST PROUT DISCUSSES
WHETHER BIBLE OR TRADI-TION SHOULD GOVERN

The subject announced for last evening at the Gospel Tent, "The Bible or Tradition—Which, for Sunday Keeping?" attracted a splendid audience. Evangelist C. S. Prout in a very lucid and spirited address set before his hearers much evidence of a decided and indisputable nature bearing on the two great principles represented in Christendom by Protestantism on the one hand and Roman Catholicism on the other.

"The true Protestant principle," said the preacher, "was set forth at the very beginning of the reformation of the sixteenth century in these words: 'We are resolved, with the grace of God, to maintain the pure and exclusive preaching of His only word, such as is contained in the Biblical books of the Old and New Testaments, without adding anything thereto that may be contrary to it.' The holder of the other position declares: 'I most steadfastly admit and embrace the apostolical and ecclesiastical traditions. . . . I also admit the Holy Scriptures, according to that sense which our Holy Mother Church has held and does hold.'"

"The consistent Protestant believes that the Bible furnishes a sufficient rule of faith and practice while the Roman Catholic affirms that tradition is 'more clear and safe' than the Bible. Which view is the correct one?" asked Mr. Prout who then proceeded with the evidence. Slides were screened with accompanying statements of such eminent men as Dr. Albert Barnes, Charles H. Spurgeon, John Wesley, Dr. Kettol, and others, all of whom positively declared that the Ten Commandments of the decalogue were in no (Continued on Page 8)

JOYOUS SURPRISE

An impromptu luncheon and most pleasant visit was enjoyed in the Stockbridge home at 231 North Adams street, Monday of this week, when Mrs. Stockbridge and son, Edward, were surprised by O. A. Johnson and daughter, Lucille, who motored down from San Francisco. Edward and Miss Lucille were classmates at Trinity School in Los Angeles five years ago and have corresponded ever since the departure of the Johnsons to San Francisco. Mr. Johnson, though in the government service, when war was declared with Germany, enlisted in the Transportation Corps and spent a year in France, and was wounded in service.

FOOTBALL CLUB

Mrs. W. C. Cutler of 1327 North Louise street on Friday entertained the Football Club, or as many members as were not absent at mountains or beach. It was an entirely informal social afternoon, devoted to needlework and conversation and tea was served in the garden. The ladies present were Mrs. G. K. Barnes, Mrs. Everett Barnes, Mrs. Mary J. Oliver, Mrs. C. H. Crawford, Mrs. Alfred Priest, Mrs. J. I. Werne, Mrs. Walter Elliott, Mrs. Elliott B. Wyman, and the hostess. The club voted to take up Red Cross sewing for the destitute children of middle and western Europe, garments already cut out being now obtainable from Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Chairman of the Glendale Chapter.

SON FROM OVERSEAS

MRS. ARTHUR C. BROWN WEL-
COMES SERGT. C. B. BEESON,
OF ARMY OF OCCUPATION

Mrs. Arthur C. Brown of 201 Millford street has had a double pleasure. She recently received a telegram from her son, Sergt. C. B. Beeson, who has been overseas with the Army of Occupation, announcing his arrival on this side of the water and that he was en route for Glendale. On the same day came a message from two sisters, Mrs. Mendenhall and Mrs. Grieve, who reside in Nebraska, that they were coming to spend a vacation with her. All these welcome guests are now here and Mrs. Brown considers it most fortunate that they came at the same time. It is, of course, a great joy to Sergeant Beeson to see his child whose looks he could not realize from the photographs which have been sent him. He expects now to remain in this country and probably in Glendale.

BOND ELECTION

TRUSTEES OF GLENDALE HIGH SCHOOL VOTE TO CALL
ELECTION FOR $60,000

A meeting of the High School Board of Trustees for the Glendale District was held Thursday evening at which plans for temporary bungalows to be used as class rooms and a temporary girls' gymnasium were submitted by Architect C. C. Rittenhouse with estimates of cost. After a study of the plans and some discussion the Board voted to call a bond election for $60,000 and Friday morning on instructions from the Board, Business Manager Irving Oliver visited the office of the County Superintendent in Los Angeles to arrange for the necessary election call to be prepared that advertising may begin at the earliest possible date. It now seems probable that the election will take place inside of thirty days.

D. V. B. S. ENROLLMENT REACHES 200 MARK

The Daily Vacation Bible School which is in session at the Glendale Presbyterian Church reports an enrollment of 201 at Friday's session with an attendance of 139. Interest increases as the days go by and the boys and girls who are fortunate enough to attend and receive the instruction given during the hours from nine to eleven each day in sewing, basket-weaving, craft work, songs, Bible stories, etc., are not only receiving valuable instruction but having a happy time as well. The Glendale and Tropic schools will join with the Los Angeles schools Saturday in a large union picnic at Sycamore Grove and are looking forward to a large crowd and a royal good time when each school represented will put forth every effort to prove itself the best school in the district.

FOSTER BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery of 415 South Central avenue was the hostess of the Foster Bridge Club Friday, two tables being placed for the card players who were: Mesdames Heller Hilliard of Los Angeles, C. E. Norton, Lester Jones, Maurice Bondeaux, Helen Campbell, Miss Annie McIntyre and the hostess who made high score. Shasta daisies were used in decoration of the Montgomery home and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served at the close of play.

CITY SCHOOL BONDS

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees of City Schools which was held Thursday evening, Superintendent R. D. White reported he had been advised by the county authorities that the last bond issue would be sold next Monday, the preliminary advertising for bids having been done. These bonds carry 6 percent because it has been found almost impossible to dispose of securities at any lower rate of interest.

FRIGHTENED BY EARTHQUAKE

Irving H. Oliver was in Los Angeles Friday and experienced the earthquake shocks, which, he says, were decidedly sharp, but which seemed to be an up and down motion that caused a minimum of damage. They were effective, however, on the minds of Los Angeles people and he says he never saw so many people in Pershing Park before. It was fairly congested and he could only explain it on the theory that persons frightened by the earthquake had sought the open.

GOING UP

D. S. PHILLIPS RESIGNS POSI-TION TO TAKE BETTER JOB
WITH PAPER COMPANY

D. S. Phillips, former Auditor of the Public Service Department, who resigned some time ago to take a position as credit manager for the J. W. Hale Company of Los Angeles has been offered a more lucrative position with a promising future with the Sierra Paper Company of 126 S. Los Angeles street, Los Angeles. Mr. Phillips will leave his present position and take up his new duties as Credit Manager for the paper company just as soon as he is able to arrange for the work to be taken up by his successor. The many friends of Mr. Phillips in Glendale will rejoice with him in this splendid opportunity and wish for him every success in the new position to which he is going.

CONGRESSMEN AT ANGEL ISLAND

INSPECT IMMIGRATION STATION AND QUESTION THE JAPANESE PICTURE BRIDES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ANGEL ISLAND, San Francisco Bay, July 17.—The congressional committee investigating the Japanese question on the Pacific coast, today visited Angel Island Immigration Station to see forty Japanese picture brides who arrived yesterday.

The condition of the buildings at the station, which were declared to be fire traps interested the committee as much as the picture brides.

The committee questioned through an interpreter, ten of the picture brides, half of whom never had seen their husbands. They also questioned a Mexican held for deportation. He told them of an alleged underground route through Juarez for illegal entries into the United States.

BOLD BURGLARS

HEAVILY ARMED MEN BREAK INTO OAKLAND RESIDENCE
—GAG SERVANTS, LOOT SAFE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

OAKLAND, Cal., July 17.—Six burglars, heavily armed, early today broke into the home of C. E. Carlson, bound and gagged two servants, disconnected the telephone, broke into the family safe with a sledge hammer and escaped with currency and jewelry worth $20,000.

STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

LABOR STATISTICS SHOW 1,055,000 MEN AFFECTED WITH LOSS OF $175,000,000 IN WAGES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Preliminary statistics compiled by the Department of Labor indicate that approximately three and one-half million workers were affected by labor controversies, strikes and lockouts during the last fiscal year.

The Department of Labor mediated in 800 cases involving 1,055,000 men. It is estimated that strikes and lockouts cost the workers a total of $175,000,000 in wages, and employers lost $700,000,000 in decreased production.

Officials said that strikes are less numerous now but are harder to settle than they were a year ago.

SECOND INTERNATIONAL YACHT RACE

RESOLUTE AND SHANNON ENCOUNTER DEAD CALM AND POSTPONE START UNTIL 1:46 P. M.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ON BOARD U. S. DESTROYER GOLDSBOROUGH, July 17.—Owing to a dead calm around the starting point when the hour for the second race of the International Yacht Club series arrived, the start of the race was postponed.

After over an hour's delay the Shamrock and the Resolute got away for the start on the second race shortly before 2 o'clock. The Resolute's official starting time was 1:46:29, the Shannon's 1:46:37. Both yachts shot cleanly across the line. The Shannon tried to kill the Resolute's wind but the Resolute maneuvered away on each attempt.

SLEUTH RETURNS

MALCOLM M'LAREN COMES HOME AFTER TWO MONTHS
IN NEW YORK CITY

Mrs. Malcolm McLaren of North Jackson street is a happy wife as she has been advised that Mr. McLaren will reach Glendale today or tomorrow after an absence of two months in New York. It will be remembered that he went there to secure the extradition of a wealthy confidence crook who had swindled a Californian to the tune of about $50,000. Because of his wealth the swindler was able to secure the best of legal talent and every possible obstacle in the way of his return to Los Angeles has been raised. His first effort was to try to set up an alibi claiming that he was in New York City when the fraud was perpetrated. It became necessary to import to New York the victim and others who could identify the crook and give testimony. When Mr. McLaren left here he expected to be gone only two weeks. Many times he has thought the end of his fight was in sight and he could return with his prisoner only to be set back in some new direction. The lawyer for the defendant has secured a stay of execution and the final hearing has been postponed until October 8th, therefore Mr. McLaren is now able to come home, to his very great relief, as he has written that the heat in New York was becoming terrible. Fortunately he has been very well throughout his stay there notwithstanding the fact that he is susceptible to such heat and was prostrated when he was obliged to be in Washington a year ago.

It is a very unusual thing for this devoted man and wife to be so long separated as she always accompanies him when he has reason to think he will be gone any length of time. Her travels have taken her all over the United States which she has learned to know more thoroughly than many of the geographers. When Mr. McLaren returns to New York in October, she will go with him and is looking forward with pleasure to seeing at that season the great metropolis where she lived a number of years.

Another pleasure in store for Mr. McLaren is the arrival of the son and daughter of his only sister, Mrs. Schuch, who, with her husband and family, has been living on the plains of Wyoming at Chugwater. Mr. McLaren persuaded them to exchange that land of long winters for Southern California and the boy and girl, who are nineteen and fourteen years old, respectively, arrived by train Friday. Glendale seems like heaven to them and the young girl is wild with delight over the trees and flowers. Her enterprising brother has already secured a job at the box factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuch and two other children are en route by auto, camping by the way. Mr. Schuch is a carpenter and the McLarens believe he will experience no difficulty in finding employment here.

PLAGUE IN GALVESTON

Death of a young man from bubonic plague in Galveston, Texas, emphasizes the need for the most exacting precautions to prevent the dread disease, which has broken out at Vera Cruz, from getting a foothold in the United States. Federal, state, county and city health officials concurred in the diagnosis, made by a state medical college professor.

Care being taken at southern seaports is a guarantee that everything will be done which it is possible to do to keep the disease away, and to stamp it out if it should gain a foothold. Reports that the disease is decreasing in intensity in Vera Cruz are reassuring.

GLENDALE SHEET METAL WORKS

The Glendale Sheet Metal Works at 127 North Glendale avenue is meeting with great success in all departments, especially with new lines recently added, for auto repairing. They don't make autos complete, but they can build or rebuild the car body or repair the worst case of bent or smashed fender. They also remove carbon from the automobile cylinders by the oxygen process while you wait. Specialty men of long experience are in charge of each department. The building occupied extends clear through to Geneva street, with an entrance there as well as on Glendale avenue.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair and warmer tonight and Sunday.

W. R. C. EXCURSION

DELEGATES FROM GLENDALE CORPS ARE GUESTS OF SAN-TA MONICA ORGANIZATION

Twelve representative women of the Woman's Relief Corps of N. P. Banks Post journeyed to Santa Monica yesterday forenoon in a special stage to be the guests of the Stephen Jackson Corps of that city. It was a reception for Department Officers of which Mrs. Priscilla Houdyshel of this city is one, having been elected Department Chaplain at the convention at Santa Barbara. About three hundred, representing many corps of Southern California, were present. The Stephen Jackson is considered quite a young corps, having been organized but six years, but it is sufficiently grown up to know how to do the honors as a hostess, and the ladies who went from here spent a delightful day. They were Mesdames Mary Milligan, president; Priscilla Houdyshel, Lillian Peckham, Juliana Hayes, Annie Patterson, Pearl Moore, Alice Tuttle, Pearl Gillette, Mina Richards, Annie C. Burns, M. B. Miller, G. W. Sanford.

A very fine luncheon was served which was followed by a miscellaneous program, which included a pretty flag drill executed by ten little girls known as the Sunshine Girls, who also sang a song or two. There were other musical numbers which were enjoyed and then the Past Department Commander, who resides in Stockton where the convention will be held next year, made a brief speech. He assured the ladies that Stockton had pledged itself to out-do Santa Barbara in entertaining them.

The ladies knew nothing about the earthquake shocks until advised by Los Angeles people they encountered on the way home who were waiting for cars to take them out of the city because of their fright.

JUST ABOUT FAR ENOUGH

Mattison B. Jones was standing on Brand boulevard Friday afternoon when the two sharp earthquakes were felt. When asked how he felt about it he said he was reminded of the behavior of his law partner, Mr. Wilson, a few weeks ago when Los Angeles had a mild shock. Mr. Wilson was dictating to a young lady stenographer at the time and Mr. Jones walked into the office to find both Mr. Wilson and the young lady sitting perfectly rigid in their chairs. When Mr. Wilson could command speech he burst forth indignantly: "This thing has gone just about far enough."

DAUGHTER WELCOMED

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Russell of 101 North Cedar street have welcomed to their home an eight and a half pound daughter, born at the Glendale Sanatorium Friday night. They have two other children. Mr. Russell is at the head of the Russell Furniture Factory on San Fernando Road. Mrs. Russell is a niece of Mrs. Malcolm McLaren and they have been residents of Glendale only about a year.

MORE ALVA FOLKS

MR. AND MRS. HAMPTON ARRIVE
FROM OKLAHOMA TO MAKE PERMANENT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Noble of 327 North Jackson street have just welcomed their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hampton, and their little son from Alva, Oklahoma. They came by auto and were nine days on the way, devoting one day to a detour to see the Grand Canyon. They have come to make a permanent home here. On the way they encountered several tourists who, like themselves, were bound for Glendale. One of these was Mike Gannon, of Victor, Iowa, and another family was from Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble and their son were guests at a dinner given Wednesday evening by Mrs. J. W. Montfort, who is occupying the Bales house at 323 North Jackson street, at which Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Sweesy of Mills College were also guests. Mrs. Sweesy, who is a teacher in Mills College, is a sister of Mrs. Noble. She and Mr. Sweesy came south and took in the big trees en route. Mr. Noble reports another prospective resident of Glendale in Frank Munson, who has been cashier of the Bank of Alva and who recently came to Pasadena, where he has been visiting friends but he likes Glendale and was here Friday looking around with a view to locating here.

PLEASURE RIDES

AUTO CLUB SUGGESTS SAVING GASOLINE FOR PUBLIC UTILITY VEHICLES

Certain facts in regard to the present local gasoline shortage are paramount.

In the first place, there is a serious shortage in Southern California, whether actual or artificial remains to be seen. That rests with the government.

This locality is not so much concerned with the outcome of various investigations as it is with the relief of the present situation, particularly in behalf of those who must market perishable products.

The fact remains that there is not enough gasoline here for everyone, and the Automobile Club of Southern California again takes the opportunity to suggest a vital curtailment of the use of gas so far as pleasure and luxury vehicles are concerned.

Conservation for ten days is believed to be the effective immediate solution to a problem which concerns the operation of public utility vehicles and jeopardizes the safety and welfare of the state.

The police and fire departments, the hospitals and perishable produce concerns, must all have gasoline. In order to give them gasoline which they need, other motorists, particularly in the cities, should be willing to curtail its use to an extent which will materially affect the amount available for those carriers which are close to the public and suburban welfare.

The Automobile Club has completed an investigation as to actual conditions here and in other southern counties, and the fact developed that there is really very little gasoline actually available for the public.

The shortage is here, so for the present it must be accepted. There is no use in "grabbing" a few gallons now, for there is every indication that it will continue.

The time has come when motorists must put their shoulders to the wheel to help keep the ambulances running when necessary and to give gasoline to the fire department and to the police machines and to the marketers of perishable products.

Eliminate your pleasure rides, Mr. Motorist, and save the gasoline for the vehicles that must have it.

Try this for ten days, and see if it doesn't have a very vital effect on the supply.

FORD IMPROVEMENTS

B. L. GRAVES ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT CHANGES AT DETROIT PLANT

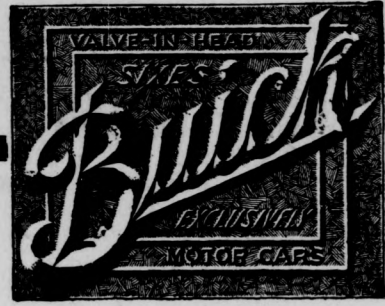

Lately returned from Detroit, where he attended the Branch Managers of the Ford Motor Company's Convention, B. L. Graves, local Branch Manager is most enthusiastic about the new improvements at the Ford Plants there.

"The new plant at Rouge River, where all of the casting is done and the new blast furnaces of the Ford Company are located, was one of the things that impressed me the most," said Mr. Graves, "and the amount of work that they accomplish is tremendous. On account of the general conditions it has been found necessary to operate the ovens there on slow-cooking time, which means twenty-four hours to eighteen of fast time and means a difference in production of some 30 per cent. At the present time the ovens are averaging 1400 tons of coke, 8000 gallons of benzol, 22,000,000 cubic feet of gas, 25 tons of ammonium sulphate and 18,000 gallons of tar daily. Now if these ovens were running on regular production time, they would be increasing the production 1800 tons of coke, 10,500 gallons of benzol, 30,000,000 cubic feet of gas, etc., and with another 120 ovens in operation the daily production will be lifted to 3600 tons of coke, 21,000 gallons of benzol, 60,000,000 cubic feet of gas, ammonium sulphate and tar respectively.

"Of all these by-products 10,000,000 of the 22,000,000 cubic feet of gas produced daily is delivered to the city, 3,000,000 cubic feet is used as blast furnace fuel while the remainder is rotated to the coke ovens as fuel. They are using the tar as fuel in both the Highland Park and Rouge River plants because it is claimed to have a higher heating value than coal and the cost of handling is less and it is also cheaper."

CROSSING TRAGEDY

There was a young fellow named Izzie,
Who went for a drive in his Lizzie;
His view of the train
Was hidden by rain—
Alas for poor Izzie, where is he?

DASH TO THE COAST

OVERLAND EPOCH-MAKING DEMONSTRATION IN RE-LAY RUN

NEW YORK, July 17.—The official route of the Overland transcontinental test for stamina and economy has been announced. The car will follow in the main the Lincoln Highway from New York City to San Francisco. It will leave New York at midnight Sunday, July 18th.

The route will take the car through Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Pittsburg, Canton, Fort Wayne, Chicago Heights, Cedar Rapids, Des Moines, Omaha, North Platte, Cheyenne, Rock Springs, Salt Lake City, Reno and Sacramento.

The surprising feature of the test is the fact that the stock car chosen for the run will be driven for the most part by drivers who have had no previous experience with this car. As the car approaches the territory of an Overland distributor it will be turned over to a man selected by the distributor in that territory who will drive to the line of his neighboring distributor's territory. Thus the car will be subjected to wide variety in methods of driving and its gasoline and oil consumption record can be freely accepted as a record which any careful driver could attain.

TOUGH ON JONES

Possibly the apex of sarcasm or something was reached the other day when Jones took his flivver to a repair shop and asked the man there what was the best thing to do with it.

The repair man looked the car over in silence for several minutes, after which he grasped the horn and tooted it. "You've a good horn there," he remarked quietly. "Suppose you jack it up and run a new car under it."—Boston Transcript.

DEFINITE SIGNALS

Many automobile drivers are careless about giving definite signals when getting ready to make a turn on the road. A signal that is not correctly given or that is given in such a way that other drivers near by on the road cannot understand it does more harm than when no signal is given. There seems to be a laxness in the law in not requiring automobile drivers to be well-informed as to the road signals before beginning to drive. Just why so many are driving automobiles without having any education as to the care of a machine and the laws of the road is a mystery to most thoughtful people anyway. So often a driver who is giving strict attention to the course of the auto ahead of him will observe a signal given with the hand outstretched horizontally toward the left which means a turn to the left when instead the driver will make a turn to the right. The main lack of clearness in giving the signals is in pointing the hand in the direction that observers cannot detect whether it is in a diagonal or horizontal position. Every person who begins to drive an automobile should be taught how to give the road signals correctly and there is no better way of fulfilling this requirement than to have a law requiring all persons who wish to drive automobiles to pass a proper examination before beginning to drive.

15 Years an Expert

E. W. Kimmel, wife and baby of Fresno, are visiting relatives and old friends in Glendale and Los Angeles. Mr. Kimmel was with the Southern California Gas Company office in Glendale for a few days' visit. Mr. Kimmel is now with the Pacific Gas & Electric Company at Fresno and is on his vacation.

Stanley Gorman, Douglas Balthis and Ed Regan, who left Glendale about the 7th to attend the convention of the Rainbow Division in Alabama, are not expected home until the last of the week as they are returning by a long route and will make stops in Chicago, Denver and San Francisco. Ed Regan is president of the Los Angeles Chapter of the Division.

Personals

W. E. Pelley is having a 4-room house and a garage built at 810 Raleigh, to cost $2500.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Waite of 407 South Central avenue have gone to Catalina for the week-end.

W. L. Craig has taken out a permit for the erection of a 5-room house and a garage at 1016 Florence Place, to cost $3000.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Pierce of Vine street, who have been away for several weeks, are expected home from Big Bear today.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Holmes and three children of 425 Pioneer Drive are leaving today for an outing of several weeks at Hermosa Beach.

Mrs. Hanna, mother of Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, has just returned from a visit in the home of her brother, Henry Smith, of Bakersfield.

Mrs. H. A. McPherson of Pioneer Drive went to Big Bear Wednesday and is expected home Sunday night. Her daughter, Dorothy, is going up to join her sisters and brother there Sunday morning.

Harry St. Clair and family, who formerly lived at 327½ East Chestnut, have just returned from a visit to Hemet and are occupying one of the bungalows at the court on North Orange.

J. F. Stanford, who has been at 117 South Brand for the past year, will move to his new office across the street the first of the week. A. A. Barstow, who has been associated with him, will remain at the old stand to conduct a real estate business of his own.

The stripped Hudson car that was found near Verdugo Road a few mornings ago proved to have been stolen and the owner, a Los Angeles man, was notified of the finding of the same. He had the Packer & White Auto Company tow it to their repair garage to be put in traveling condition.

Frank Motsch has had lights installed in his temporary residence at 2139 Kenneth Road, preparatory to moving in next week. The home the Motschs vacate, at 216 West Park avenue, they sold some time ago to Cyrus Goodyer and wife, who will move in as soon as a few repairs are made.

The big cement horseshoe which Volney T. Philp constructed and placed for a sign at the northeast corner of the grounds of the Glendale Horseshoe Club, Broadway and Orange, was torn to pieces Thursday night by vandals and a vulgar writing left at the place. This is the second act of vandalism committed on these grounds.

Among the recent sales made by John Strother, with Hal Davenport real estate agency, not already reported in the Evening News are the following: The Petty home on S. Maryland avenue to James A. Frampton of the Union Iron Works, Los Angeles; the residence property of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Webster to Elbridge Pray of Long Beach.

Mrs. M. P. Phillips and her daughter, Mrs. Birdwell, of Casa Grande, Arizona, have come to Glendale to spend a month with their relative, Mrs. H. S. Clewett of 526 East Windsor Road. After Arizona Glendale feels to them like a refrigerating plant and they complain of the cold at night. Until they came they had not been able to conceive of a summer climate in which one would have any occasion to wear a coat.

Dr. A. H. Guernsey of 314 North Jackson street has just received a letter from his niece, Mrs. Moore, announcing her safe arrival in Chicago after a pleasant journey. Mrs. Moore, it will be remembered, came to Glendale last September and remained for the winter, leaving here a few weeks ago. She came on business, but so greatly enjoyed her stay that she is coming again to spend next winter and will probably bring with her a daughter who wishes to try the climate of Southern California.

E. E. Williamson and family, who have been living at 340 West Elk avenue, are preparing to move to Covina, where he has been offered a fine position in a bank. He has been secretary of Y. M. C. A. work among boys in the Glendale district for the past year and has made many friends, especially among the boys. Mrs. Williamson and the children are in Pasadena with her parents until he returns from the camping trip up in San Gabriel Canyon.

Glendale numbers a good many valued residents who came here from Illinois and new comers from that state are always welcome. One of the more recent arrivals is Mr. Parr, who came from Peoria four weeks ago and is already established in a home which he purchased at 704 East Windsor Road opposite the Heacock place. Mr. Parr seems much pleased with his investment which has provided him with a nice little orchard and where he has an excellent soil for anything he desires to grow. He is already a booster for Glendale and a subscriber for its daily paper.

POINTERS!

Life Insurance is selling money on the installment plan for future delivery. Frequently the delivery is to a widow or dependent child.

If you make some sacrifice to carry insurance you are preventing your family from making greater ones when you are not with them to help carry the load.

"I made a man of my son. When he was 18 I insured his life, paid the premiums for two years, then turned it over to him. He thus learned the first lesson in responsibility."

He died in a pair of $20 shoes. His wife lived, deprived of the $1000 insurance the cost of these shoes would have paid for.

Are there any lessons in this for you?

MASTER TEACHER

REV. CLIFFORD COLE GIVES IMPRESSIVE MESSAGE AT PRE-COMMUNION SERVICE

Rev. Clifford A. Cole of the Glendale Christian Church spoke at the Thursday night pre-communion service in the Glendale Presbyterian Church following a supper served to the officers and teachers of the Sunday School. This was "Sunday School Night" and Rev. Cole brought a wonderful message on "The Master Teacher." The forceful manner in which he presented this great thought won the hearts and attention of his hearers and he proved by Scripture and by illustration without a doubt that Christ was and is yet the Master Teacher, leaving his hearers with a deep desire in their hearts to follow their Master more closely. Friday night, or "Family Night" brought the climax to the week's meetings when Rev. George M. Rourke, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church of Long Beach, gave an inspiring message on "An Endless Indebtedness," impressing his audience in a most earnest and sincere way with the great debt each one owes to his Lord and Master. Rev. Rourke is one of the very best speakers on the coast and is well known to many Glendale people, always bringing a helpful message and the one given Friday evening did not disappoint his hearers but left each one feeling that it was good to have been there. This has been one of the best pre-communion weeks ever known in the Glendale Presbyterian Church, each meeting being better than the one preceding and all tending to bring the congregation and friends closer together in real fellowship. The week's preparation in these services will find its culmination in the Twilight Communion service which will be held at six o'clock Sunday evening.

PRESIDENT HALE TALKS

A number of citizens of Glendale assembled at the City Hall last evening to listen to M. C. Hale, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, President of the U. S. Compression Inner Tube Co., explain the proposed industrial enterprise that is being established on the San Fernando Road between Glendale and Burbank, about two blocks east of the Moreland Truck Company's factory. Mr. Hale explained that his company has purchased a block of land at that location for $16,000. The company was offered the land free at Long Beach, Compton, Watts and Pasadena, but were so much better pleased with the advantages west of Glendale that they decided upon it even if it cost them the $16,000 in cold cash.

Mr. Hale says it is the purpose of his company to manufacture this inner tube at three points in the United States at present, one factory being in Pennsylvania, another at Tulsa, Oklahoma, and the third near Glendale. The Glendale-Burbank plant will serve as a distributing point to all the territory west of the Rocky Mountains and to foreign countries. It is expected that work will be begun on the construction of the new building early in October.

The capacity of the factory at first will be five hundred tubes per day. Chas. H. Black, whose office is in the Citizens National Bank Build-

Mr. Hale urges that citizens of Glendale prepare to provide houses for the hundreds of employees who will be needed in the new factory.

Mrs. F. A. Sawyer and daughter, Eleanor, have just returned from a stay of a week or ten days at Balboa Beach. They had a delightful time there, they report, and saw a number of Glendale people who are summering there. After reaching home they were surprised by the arrival of friends who have been in the east and of whose return to California they were in ignorance. They had taken quarters at a hotel in Los Angeles and were so frightened by the quake that they grabbed suitcases and fled to Glendale. They say that the rumble which accompanied the quake was more terrifying than the shake and that there was a big exodus from the city to the country, particularly among persons who were living in big hotels.

an organization in no way connected with the Automobile Club of America, a wealthy and influential organization with headquarters in New York City and lately acting as general manager of the "United Auto Clubs of America, Inc.," after an indictment by the Federal Grand Jurors had been returned against him. U. S. District Attorney O'Conner stated that a further and more extensive investigation of the ramifications of the organization had been commenced with a view to protecting motorists, garage owners, gas stations, proprietors and hotel men against the alleged fraudulent practices of the defendants named in the indictment. All motorists who have been victimized by Flowers' agents are asked to report the matter at once to the U. S. District Attorney.

It is claimed by the Federal officials that the promotion of this organization is the most far-reaching attempt to capitalize the desire of motorists to protect their own interests by "joining hands" that has ever been brought to the attention of Federal authorities. They say that Flowers and his co-defendants also sought to make it appear to their intended victims that they were joining the Automobile Club of Southern California, the American Automobile Association or the real Automobile Club of America in New York.

Not a city or town in Southern California has escaped the attention of Flowers' agents, according to statements of the Federal authorities. Motorists throughout this end of the State have been urged to join the organization and to part with their money upon the representations that they would secure reduced prices on gasoline, accessories, repairs and even groceries and millinery. "Official memberships" have been solicited from numerous persons, including those conducting oil stations, garage men, hotels, dry goods houses and other business concerns and professional men. Federal authorities yesterday said they were not prepared to state how much money had been secured in this way. The charge of fraud made by the Government is that Flowers and the other defendants named in the indictment imposed on a large number of people by false representations as to the size and character of his organization and by his failure to fulfill his many promises to them.

That there may be other imitators in the promotion of "fake" auto associations appearing here from time to time, is the warning from the Federal authorities and motorists will be wise to carefully examine credentials of any solicitors endeavoring to secure memberships from motoring organizations of this character.

SHADES OF NOAH WEBSTER

It looks very much as though the automobile industry would have a language of its own, says Touring Topics. Hundreds of words have been contributed to the English language by the motor car, including a few brand new cuss words which were inspired by balky motors and blow-outs on hot days. And now the truck men are doing their best to get us to use another word descriptive of their business—"Truck-transportation"—which they suggest in place of the cumbersome phrase, "Truck transportation." This may or may not be all right, but it reminds us a little of the party who suggested that as long as we have "navigators" and "aviators," why not call the radio experts "radiators?"

AUTO ACCIDENTS

AUTO CLUB STATISTICS SHOW DECREASE ON MOUNTAIN AND RURAL ROADS

Auto accidents are actually decreasing throughout the southern part of the state!

And the strangest part of it is there are fewer accidents now on the mountain and rural routes than in the principal cities of the southern counties.

This report is furnished through the Automobile Club of Southern California from the various Vigilante organizations now operating to make the roads safe for visitors. In fact, it is shown that the out-of-town vigilance operatives are getting better results than those working in the city.

"There are a few hard-boiled types of motorists who are apparently impervious to any warning shouted at them along the road, but many actually welcome a word of advice from a well-meaning Vigilante or from the police department," state Auto Club officials.

An average of fifty reports a day are being made in Los Angeles by the committee, but the report of the police traffic bureau for June shows that the number of traffic accidents did not materially decrease. The reports are made to the police who in turn warn the offenders.

Reports made from San Diego, Santa Barbara, the Imperial Valley and the Riverside and San Bernardino regions show that auto accidents along the county roads are not nearly so numerous as they were four months ago despite the heavy summer vacation travel now under way. This is gratifying to the authorities who have been exerting their efforts in behalf of public safety.

More care in the mountains and on narrow roads is still necessary, if not to avoid actual accidents, to avoid scaring visitors to death!

OLD PARTIES FLAYED

REV. SMART ADVOCATES NEW
ALIGNMENT OF PROHIBITION
VOTERS

Mr. Editor:

Please allow me to answer the following political question:

"In the present cowardly and traitorous mixup of the conscienceless two old party conventions, what ought the great majority of one hundred million honorable decent citizens with forty million church members, twenty million women, the Prohibitionists, the W. C. T. U. and anti-saloon leaguers and national reform forces do?"

They should consider carefully these facts: First, in Caesar's time Western Europe was barbarian and heathen. Its rulers assumed and claimed to own both the land and the people. They ruled without consent and taxed without representation. For ages ignorance, vice and wars dominated society and robbed humanity. Idolatry, lust and drunkenness swamped everything. The gospel came from Palestine, but was corrupted by the heathenism of the people and their religious teachers. Romanism corrupted Christianity and turned it into licentiousness, general vice and poverty.

The Popish hierarchy ruled both church and state. Meanwhile God hid Columbia from Europe for ages. Then he picked out honest, true Christian men to discover, colonize and settle this continent with Protestant Christian colonists. Every permanent colony had a Christian charter and compact. Of these the most notable, and thoroughly Christian, was the Mayflower or compact of 1620 which became the taproot of our national civilization. That, with Jamestown, Rhode Island, New York, the Pennsylvania charter, and the Mecklinburg declaration became the source of our great Declaration of Independence and of our national life. On the basis of these facts our Supreme Court rendered the decision that "we are a Christian nation of liberty and tolerant Christianity."

We remained so till foreign immigration, taking advantage of this tolerance came here, brought their saloons and made them the missionary stations for godlessness, carousing, debauchery, sectarian bigotry and anarchy. In Lincoln's time, though true at first the Democrats had become saturated with godless greed, wicked human slavery, "Rum and Rebellion." At present Rum rules both parties. At the close of the Rebellion, in 1867, the brewers' convention gave emphatic notice to the old parties in the following: "Resolved, That we will use all means in our power to stay the progress of this fanatical party, and to secure our rights as citizens, and that we will sustain no candidate of whatever party, in any election, who is in any way disposed toward total abstinence."

Since then and down to the last two conventions, the Republicans and Democrats have constantly rivaled each other for the liquor vote. Meanwhile a new generation of young people led by William Jennings Bryan and others are displacing the old hunkers of both parties.

Undoubtedly it is the duty of the clean, moral forces of the land to unite on a right platform, with proper candidates, and under God's lead put them at the head of the Government as the Christian citizens did in Lincoln's time. So we may save our nation and the sober civilization of the world.

SUNDAY KEEPING

way changed by the death of Christ. On the contrary they were the unalterable rule of Christian conduct and holiness. Testimony was also produced on the screen showing that Baptists, Methodists, Congregationalists, and others, all distinguished between the moral and ceremonial laws; one being the 'royal law,' Jas. 2:8, eternal and binding upon all men; the other, temporary, and pertaining to the Nation of Israel, shadowing forth in sacrifices and offerings. Jesus Christ, the one great sacrifice for sins. With the death of Christ the 'law of commandments contained in ordinances' was nailed to the cross. This law, given in the handwriting of Moses, prescribed feast days and seven annual Sabbaths connected therewith, also monthly services and ceremonial rites, pertaining solely to the Israelites. It served its purpose, and ceased automatically. The moral law is God's great mirror to show men their condition before God. It points out sin, but cannot give us cleansing. It, however, compels us to flee to Christ, who cleanses from all sin. Then as we again look in the mirror it witnesses to our righteousness. To become angry with the mirror and then break it because it reveals one's true condition is neither reasonable nor helpful. That is the course of many today, declared Mr. Prout. They find in the Fourth Commandment a definite, clearly stated command to observe the seventh day which God observed and set apart for mankind. Their practice is contrary to this. In order to justify themselves, they have resource to the expedient of doing away with the mirror altogether, teaching that Christ abolished the 'ten words,' then finding that they need some moral standard, attempt to prove that Christ re-enacted them, substituting the first day for the seventh. If this were the case, then the early Christian church were without a moral standard for many until the new code was published. Matthew wrote his gospel six years after Christ's ascension, Mark ten years, Luke 28, and John 63 years after. All of these speak of the seventh day as the Sabbath, and of the first merely as 'the first day of the week' and cite the Commandments without suggestion of repeal. If we follow consistently the Bible only there is no mistaking the truth upon this great question.

"The late Dr. Dale, the eminent Congregationalist theologian, said: 'It is quite clear that however rigidly or devoutly we may spend Sunday, we are not keeping the Sabbath. There is not a single sentence in the New Testament to suggest that we incur any penalty by violating' the supposed sanctity of Sunday."

"Unquestionably the first law, either ecclesiastical or civil, by which the Sabbath observance of that day is known to have been ordained, is the edict of Constantine, A. D. 321."—Chambers' Encyclopedia Article "Sabbath."

Admissions from many Protestant authorities were cited by the evangelist showing that there is no other sanction for Sunday observance than that of custom. In Roman Catholic catechism it is set forth that the church changed the Sabbath, and that the Protestants are inconsistent with their teacher—the Bible only as the rule of faith and practice. Thus it was demonstrated that to be true to the Bible, we must follow it in its declaration that the seventh day (Saturday), is the Sabbath of the Lord."

Saturday evening, it was announced, would be devoted to answering questions handed in, relating to Bible and medical topics. This should prove most lively and entertaining.
